nbkc bank Selects NCR Atleos Allpoint to Expand Access to Self-Service Banking

January 13, 2025

ATLANTA--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jan. 13, 2025-- NCR Atleos Corporation (NYSE: NATL) ("Atleos"), a leader in expanding self-service financial access for financial institutions, retailers and consumers, today announced that $1.1 billion-asset nbkc bank has selected Atleos' Allpoint Network to provide expanded, more convenient access to everyday banking transactions for its customers.

Kansas City, Missouri-based nbkc was looking for an efficient way to allow customers to conduct transactions at convenient retail locations across the United States. By joining Atleos' Allpoint Network, nbkc bank was able to quickly and easily provide surcharge-free access to an additional 55,000 ATMs worldwide, in addition to the other ATMs they already have access to, in trusted retail locations across the country where customers already live and shop. Additionally, nbkc bank customers will have a co-branded digital experience during ATM transactions and be able to deposit cash at more than 3,000 locations in the Allpoint Network.

"We aimed to leverage intuitive technology to enhance convenient and exceptional customer experiences," said Melissa Eggleston, Chief Deposit and Operations Officer at nbkc bank. "Our collaboration with Atleos effectively extends our branch network by providing greater access to self-service banking through an expanded ATM network. This ATM network expansion ensures our customers can conveniently deposit cash and perform other transactions at ATMs located in retail locations where they already shop, offering the same exceptional – and on-brand – service they expect from nbkc."

"Our utility ATM network provides increased efficiencies for financial institutions and expanded financial access for their customers," explained Steven Nogalo, General Manager of North America for Atleos. "We look forward to teaming up with nbkc bank, to provide physical banking touchpoints for their customers in retail locations they know and trust."
